PREFACE

The committee who arranged a programme for the semi-centennial celebration of the organization of this church in January, 1892, requested me to examine the records of the church for the fifty years of its existence, and write a "Chapter of Church History," as a part of the programme for that occasion.

A careful examination of the records showed them to be very incomplete, and in some of them the ink was fading so as to be almost illegible, and the binding was giving away so that the leaves were liable to fall out and be entirely lost.

These facts, with the possibility of the entire records being destroyed by fire, or other unforeseen accident, make it seem desirable that whatever historical facts can be gathered from our records, and from other available sources, should be compiled, and printed in pamphlet form, for the benefit of all who still cherish the memories of the church membership of "other days," and would be a valued keepsake hereafter for all the membership of the church today.

The Chapter of Church History as given in 1892, with such additional facts as have since been obtained, is here reproduced, and such items of interest as have since been recorded up to the close of the year 1899 have been added, with a chronological list of all who have been members of the church, in the order in which they united, and an alphabetical and family list of members, with whatever information has been obtained in regard to them, and also a list of all the Ministers, Deacons, Clerks, Treasurers and Trustees of this church from 1842 to 1900; also the Articles of Faith, Covenant and Rules of the Church.

I trust that the desire to preserve our records permanently will lead our readers to overlook all defects in the performance of the difficult task I have attempted to accomplish.

Our sincere thanks are hereby tendered to all our membership of today, as well as to all former members and friends, who have contributed either financially or otherwise toward insuring the success of this work.

A Chapter of Church History

JAN. 10th. 1892.

January 10th, 1842. at a meeting of a number of the religious residents of Crystal Lake and vicinity pursuant to notice, for the purpose of organizing a Christian Church, Rev. N. C. Clark and Rev. C. L. Hall being present, the meeting was opened with singing and prayer. It was Resolved, That it is expedient to form a church at this place, at this time.

Resolved, That this church shall be called The Congregational Church of Crystal Lake.

The church was organized with the following eight members, viz: Reuben Jenne, Mrs. Susan Jenne, John W. Salisbury, Mrs. Eliza A. Salisbury, Allen Baldwin, Mrs. Julia Baldwin, George W. Dike and James T. Pierson.

None of them are now members of this church, and only two of them are now living—Deacon J. W. Salisbury, of Elgin, Ill., who is unable to be with us today, and George W. Dike, who is still a resident of this village. All of them united by letters from eastern churches except Mr. Baldwin, who united by profession.

Mr. and Mrs. Jenne were dismissed to Elgin, Ill., in 1844. Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin were dismissed by general letters in 1868. George W. Dike was dismissed to the Free Methodist Church at Crystal Lake in 1867. James T. Pierson was dismissed to Clinton, Iowa, in 1872, and died there in 1886. Mr. and Mrs. Salisbury were dismissed to Elgin, Ill., in 1886. Mrs. Salisbury died there in 1890.

Monthly Church Meetings.

In the early days of the church's history the monthly meetings were usually held at the residences of some of the members—sometimes in one part of the parish and sometimes in another, and occasionally in the schoolhouse at Crystal Lake, or in the one in the Dike district.

Building Their First Church.

There is nothing in the records by which we can determine exactly the time of the building, or of the dedication of the first church edifice.

At a meeting of the church, held at the house of J. T. Pierson, March 8th, 1845, it was voted that this church build a house for public worship this season. J. T. Pierson, H. C. Wells and G. W. Dike be, and are, hereby constituted a building committee.

At a meeting of the church, held at the house of Allen Baldwin, April 4th, 1846, a change was made in the building committee, showing that the church was not then finished.

At a meeting of the church, May 2nd, 1846, voted that J. T. Pierson and Allen Baldwin be a committee to draft resolutions for the examination of this church, relative to selling the meeting house now in building, for the use of an academy.

At a church meeting, July 22nd, 1846, voted that we appraise the seats in the meeting house and offer them for sale to the highest bidder for the purpose of defraying the expense of building the house. If the church building was ever dedicated the fact could not be proved by the church records. (I have since been informed that the church was dedicated June 14th, 1849.)

Eighteen years later the church had so far outgrown their first meeting house that it was deemed necessary to dispose of it and erect a larger one in its place.

It was sold to the Methodists of Nunda in 1867 for $400, moved to Nunda, and used as their house of worship until they built the church which they now occupy in 1874, and was then sold to Mr. Josiah Walkup, and transformed into a dwelling house, and is now a part of the Pingry Hotel, at Nunda.

Ministers' Salaries Fifty Years Ago.

From an examination of the records of this church we would naturally infer that the first two or three ministers were not expected to put on any great amount of style, or be guilty of very much financial extravagance in any way.

At a church meeting in March, 1842, it was resolved that this church take measures to employ a minister of the gospel. Whereupon the labors of Rev. E. G. Howe were engaged for one-fourth of the time, commencing in April and ending with the close of the year, for the consideration of $37.00.

At a meeting of the church, held March 8th, 1845, voted that the clerk extend a call to Rev. Spencer Baker to preach for this church once in two weeks for one year, and that we pay him $100.00 for the same.

May 5th, 1851, a call was extended to and accepted by Rev. George Langdon to be pastor of this church, and a committee of three was appointed to guarantee the payment of his salary, which was to be $150.00 a year.

Mr. Langdon was installed over this church

Aug. 13th, 1851, and resigned after one year's service.

Two of our ministers were ordained here. Henry E. Barnes in 1862 and James H. Harwood in 1863. Both are now D. D.'s.

About ten years later than the call to Mr. Langdon, or Sept. 27th, 1861, the church voted unanimously to extend a call to Rev. Henry E. Barnes to be the pastor of this church for one year, at a salary of $400 00. Mr. Barnes resigned Aug. 29th, 1862, as he had been appointed a Chaplain in the 72nd Regiment of Illinois Volunteers.

As we find no evidence to the contrary, we conclude that our Pastors have been comfortably provided for by the church, as, whatever may be the fate of the present incumbent (Rev. O. M. Van Swearingen) there is nothing in our records to show that any of the others ever starved to death while in our employ.

Organization of a Congregational Society.

March 8th, 1851, at an adjourned meeting, it was resolved that it is expedient to take measures to organize a Congregational Society in connection with this church.

Voted that we have a committee of four appointed to draft a constitution for this society, to be presented at our next meeting.

March 29th, 1851, at a regular church meeting, the committee presented a constitution for the purpose of forming a society in connection with this church, and it was adopted. There is no record of the constitution, the election of any society officers, or records of society meetings, or of formally abolishing the society, and with one or two exceptions all business seems to have been done entirely by the church.

The way the church and society transacted business in those days is shown by the following record. Aug. 28th, 1852, voted that there be a committee of two from the church and one from the society to invite a minister of the gospel to preach to this church, on trial, with a view of being Pastor. Voted that J. W. Salisbury and Allen Baldwin, for the church, and Jonathan Dike, for the society, be that committee.

Organization of the Elgin Association.

THIS CHURCH SENDS A DELEGATE.

At a meeting of the church, Aug. 28th, 1852, a report was made by William Reed, our delegate to the meeting at Elgin, Ill., convened for the purpose of organizing an ecclesiastical body, called The Elgin Association of Congregational Churches. The report was accepted.

How Sextons Were Appointed in "Ye Olden Time."

Our church members of thirty years ago had rather queer ideas as to the best method of appointing sextons to have charge of their house of worship. There was no gambling about it—at least no playing cards, no shaking dice or flipping pennies to see who should build the fire, and light, and sweep the house, but simply cast lots, as we find by the records of Nov. 28th, 1862. "Voted that the names of heads of families of this church be put on slips of paper and put in a hat, and when a name is drawn out by the clerk, said person is to make a fire and sweep the house of worship two Sabbaths."

As this vote was rescinded Dec. 26th, 1862—in less than a month—the probability is that the plan didn't work any better than they expected.

Dedication of This Church.

This church building was dedicated July 19th, 1868. Rev. Joseph E. Roy, of Chicago, delivered the dedicatory sermon. One thousand dollars was raised at that time to finish paying for the building. The History of McHenry County says it cost $7,000. If any of the present members of this church know what it cost they know more than can be proved by our records.

(I have since ascertained that the lots cost $400; the foundation, $178; builders' contract, $6,100; stained glass for the windows, $85; paid architect for plan, $100; total, $6,863. Toward the payment of this amount the old church was sold for $400, and the Congregational Union—now the Congregational Church Building Society—gave the church $500 on condition that a collection be taken annually for that society.)

The Church Bell.

The bell which calls us to this house of worship every Sabbath was placed in its present position July 10th, 1875, by Mr. E. L. Pomeroy. It was 48 inches in diameter, and weighed 1,586 pounds, and cost over $600. The price was 37½ cents per pound at the foundry at Troy, N. Y., and with the freight added would make the expense more than the amount mentioned. It was a present to the church from Mr. Franklin Dike, who was a much esteemed resident of this village at that time.

Rev. J. H. Harwood.....1865	Rev. O. M. VanSwearingen1890

From this list we find that during the fifty years since the organization of this church, it has had twenty-six pastorates—twenty-three different ministers. Three of them, viz: Rev. J. V. Downs, Rev. J. H. Harwood and Rev. S. C. Hay, were each of them employed twice as pastors of this church.

The use of a little arithmetic here shows us that the average pastorate has been less than two years each, showing conclusively that our Congregational ministers are not a whit behind their Methodist brethren in their ability—to pack up and move.

Slavery and Liquor.

The position of this church on the slavery and liquor questions is shown by their by-laws, adopted eight years after the organization of the church, viz: Our Savior's brief and incomparable exposition of moral law, "All things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them," is regarded by the members of this church as general law:

1st—In regard to the fulfillment of promises.

2nd—In regard to buying and selling.

3rd—In regard to the payment of debts.

4th—In regard to slavery as it exists in the Southern states.

N. B. This law—the Golden Rule—is still in the Bible, and also in our church records.

Their temperance platform was this, and it is the same today:

"No member of this church shall use or vend distilled alcoholic spirits, except for necessary medicinal or chemical purposes."

Amusements.

Their rule in regard to amusements, if strictly obeyed by every church member in the United States, would not weaken the influence of the church over those who are not christians, but it might possibly lessen the revenues of county fairs, as they are conducted at the present day. This is the rule:

“No member of this church shall associate with parties convened for ungodly and worldly amusements, some of which are dancing, card parties, the theater, the circus, horse racing, &c.”

The first minister who was a member of this church was Rev. Robert Hay, in 1869—twenty-seven years after the organization of the church.

Conclusion.

Who will take our places in the Centennial celebration services, fifty years from now? Upon whose shoulders will the mantles of these fathers and mothers in Israel fall, when they shall have laid down life's weary burdens and gone to their reward?

I wish I had prophetic vision, so that I could speak their names here today. But God only knows the future.

Some of our younger members will probably live to see the year of our Lord 1942. They may not be here, but God grant that wherever their lot may be cast, they may always faithfully perform their duties to their God, to the church, to the state and to their fellow-men, and be a blessing to all with whom they associate.

Long before the next half century celebration many of us who are here today will have passed away to that "bourne from whence no traveler e'er returns." May God help us to so live that we may be like "shocks of corn, fully ripe, ready for the harvest."

CRYSTAL LAKE, ILL., Jan. 10th, 1892.

Semi-Centennial Celebration

Tuesday, Jan. 12th, 1892, dawned clear and bright, but quite cold.

The preparations for the anniversary had gone forward, and at the hour appointed the people assembled in the church. The programme, as arranged, was taken up. The address of welcome by Miss Lyra E. Dike was well presented and interesting. The response by Rev. S. C. Hay was also able and of great interest. Fraternal greetings were brought by Rev. Hale, of Ridgefield; Rev. Hamilton, of the M. E. church, and Rev. Cannon, of the Christian Church, of Nunda. The greetings were very cordial and felicitous.

Rev E. F. Wright, of Huntley, pronounced the benediction, and the meeting adjourned for dinner. All were cordially invited to step over to the chapel and partake of a bountiful dinner, made ready by the entertainment committee. Nearly all remained, and a very pleasant social time followed.

The afternoon session was better attended, and the programme carried out in full, except the responsive reading, which was omitted.

Letters from former pastors and members were first read, and proved very interesting—some of them quite touching in their expressions of affection for this church and people.

The paper by Mrs. Hay, "The Memory of the Just," was a touching and worthy tribute to many of those who for many years were the pillars of the church, and have entered into rest. The "Chapter of Church History" by H. F. Gibbs was as complete as a careful study of the records, which proved to be very incomplete, and information gathered from other sources, could make it. The people were again invited to the chapel for supper, and the time passed pleasantly until the evening service.

Bro. Wright complained that his thunder had been stolen by the addresses of the day, and gave a stirring, practical address on church work.

"Crystal Lake Fifty Years Ago," by Deacon Anson Thompson, of the Baptist church, was a very interesting address on the early days of our village. It was listened to with great interest and considerable amusement.

Opportunity was given for short addresses from any one in the audience, and was responded to by Bro. Elihu Hubbard, of the M. E. church, also by our venerable Deacon Reed, who gave his early experience in this county, and Rev. Henry Willard, a former pastor.

The music was mostly by Miss Fannie Crow and a quartet of male voices.

The benediction was pronounced by the pastor, Rev. O. M. Van Swearingen, after one of the most delightful days ever enjoyed by those who attended the services.

A SOCIETY ORGANIZED.

Feb. 9th, 1869, a society in connection with this church was organized, with a constitution and by-laws and officers, consisting of six trustees, a treasurer and a clerk; the church, which had formerly elected the trustees and treasurer, having no officers except the deacons and a church clerk.

The main object in forming the society was to interest wealthy residents (who were not members of any church) in our church affairs, as signing the constitution gave them the right to vote on certain questions. Only two or three obtained the right of suffrage in this way, and then seldom if ever used it. The society proved to be a useless appendage. For instance: A church meeting would be called to vote on the calling or dismissal of a pastor; then a society meeting would be called, and the same people would reassemble and solemnly vote to concur with the church in its action of a few days before. From the organization of the church all deeds and other property, insurance, &c., has been in the name of the Trustees of the Crystal Lake Congregational Church. For twenty-five years the church had no trustees—no one to legally hold the property. March 3rd, 1894, the society was abolished, and the officers were all elected by the church.

ORGANIZATION OF THE BARREVILLE CHURCH.

During the winter of 1894 and 1895 Rev. John E. Evans, then pastor of this church, went to Barreville every Sunday afternoon, no matter what kind of going, or how inclement the weather, and preached in the schoolhouse to the people of that neighborhood, and July 30th, 1895, he organized a Union Congregational Church there of twenty-one members, and a formal recognition meeting was held Aug. 1st.

Items of Interest

The photograph from which the cut of the church and chapel was made was taken by Miss Nettie Lewis specially for this work.

The church was papered by Elgin parties in August, 1887.

The furnace now in use was purchased in the fall of 1894. It cost $190.

The church was resingled with red cedar shingles, from Washington, in the spring of 1897, by John Darby, L. Grover and H. F. Gibbs. The two chimneys were taken down and made into one larger one, forty feet high. These and some other repairs cost nearly $175.

The chapel was papered by Leroy Beckléy in July, 1897.

The hymn books now in use were purchased in the summer of 1897.

The church was ceiled overhead with Georgia pine, in the fall of 1898, by John Darby and L. Grover, which, with some other necessary repairs, cost nearly $200.

The church was papered by Mr. Bolt, of Elgin, in December, 1898.

The melodeon now in the chapel was purchased of Mr. S. N. Tower, of Greenwood, Ill., in August, 1857, for $75, of which Mr. Tower donated to the church $12.50.

The first organist was Miss Frances Ford. She will be remembered as one of the most faithful servants of the church, although not a member. She was a sister of Mr. Park Ford, our present faithful and efficient chorister.

The organ now in use in the church was purchased via Leroy S. Beckley in May, 1886, for $150.

The pulpit and stand, costing $32, were presented to the church by Mrs. Sylvia D. Gates in June, 1886.

The church was painted in July, 1891. The work cost $65. The ladies furnished the paint.

The envelope system was adopted by the church July 27, 1874.

The twelve sheds near the chapel were built in December, 1885.

Nov. 15, 1891, it was so cloudy and dark in the church that the minister requested the janitor to light the pulpit lamp for the morning service.

From the Alphabetical List the church history of any member may be found as readily as one can find the definition of any word in the dictionary.

The figure ⊙ shows that the name given is not the same as when that person united. Find in the Alphabetical List the name and number referred to, and their record will be found.

From the corresponding number in the Chronological List may be readily found how many, and who, united at the same date as any particular member, and also from this list may be found the number of additions to the church during any one year, or term of years, or during the pastorate of any minister.

Rev. Frances L. Fuller was pastor of this church from April, 1856, to April, 1861.

In 1856 the church raised $272
The H. M. society gave $130. Total $402.
In 1857 the church raised $319.
The H. M. society gave $130. Total $449.
In 1858 the church raised $238.
The H. M. society gave $100. Total $338.
In 1859 the church raised $267.
The H. M. society gave $100. Total $367.
In 1860 the church raised $264.
The H. M. society gave $100. Total $364.

Since 1860 the church has been self supporting, and twenty-five years ago paid a pastor $1,000 and a janitor $100 salary.

This history would not be complete without a brief mention of our old sexton, Henry Ford, who was one of the neatest, most faithful, most painstaking janitors any church ever had, and who faithfully served this church nearly twenty years. He died Dec. 4, 1897, at the age of 72 years.

DEACON WILLIAM REED.

Deacon William Reed is a native of Belchertown, Mass. He united with this church Jan. 2, 1847. He was elected Deacon Jan. 8, 1848, and has served the church in that capacity almost continuously ever since, and is our senior Deacon at the present time. If he lives until June 1, 1900, he will be 96 years old. He is a remarkably well preserved man for his age, mentally and physically. He walks several blocks to church nearly every Sabbath when the weather and going will permit, and has been a faithful attendant at prayer meetings, and also the monthly church meetings, and occasionally presides as chairman of the meeting. Surely his has been a long and useful life.

Articles of Faith.

I. We believe that God exists in three persons: Father, Son and Holy Ghost, and that these three are one.

II. We believe that the Bible is the inspired word of God, and that it is the only infallible guide of faith and practice.

III. We believe that the Gospel Ministry, the Christian Church and the Christian Sabbath are institutions of Divine appointment, and will continue in force to the end of the world.

IV. We believe that man inherits a fallen nature, and cannot be an accepted child of God until regenerated by the Holy Ghost.

V. We believe that God came to earth in the person of Jesus Christ to make an atonement, and now comes in the person of the Holy Spirit to regenerate and sanctify.

VI. We believe that the righteous are saved, but the wicked go away into everlasting punishment.

VII. We believe that Salvation is a gift of God, bestowed only on condition of faith and perfect obedience. The believer is therefore in covenant to keep God's commandments, and do His work.

VIII. We believe the believers are kept by the power of God through faith unto Salvation.

IX. We believe that the ordinances of Baptism and the Lord's Supper were instituted to be observed by the church.

Covenant.

You do now, in the presence of the heart searching God, before angels, and men, avouch the Great Jehovah, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost, to be your God. You receive the Father as your Father, the Lord Jesus Christ as your Redeemer, and the Holy Ghost as your Sanctifier. Renouncing every sinful way, you devote your all unreservedly to God, and engage to walk in all His commandments, and ordinances, as required in His word. You also submit yourself to the government of Christ in His church, and to the administration of it in this church in particular. You covenant to walk in love, and fellowship, with your brethren, to live an humble Christian life, always endeavoring to promote the Kingdom of Heaven. Relying on Divine Grace, this you solemnly Covenant.

The Church Covenant.

(THE CHURCH WILL ARISE.)

We then as a Church receive you into communion, and fellowship, promising to treat you in all respects as a member of Christ's Church, and to watch over you in the spirit of Christian love and tenderness. May the Lord bless you, and keep you. The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and lift up His countenance upon you, and give you peace. Amen.

Constitution.

ART. I—NAME.

This church shall be known as the Congregational Church of Crystal Lake, Illinois.

ART. II—MEMBERSHIP.

Section 1.—Any person may become a member of this church who shall give credible evidence of regeneration, and shall assent to the articles of Faith and Covenant.

Sec. 2.—It shall be urged, by the Pastor and Clerk, upon those members who may remove from our immediate vicinity, so that they cannot attend the services and meetings of the church, that they call for their letters, and identify themselves with some church nearer to their residence as soon as convenient. If this be not possible, to keep themselves in communication with the church. Otherwise their names may be removed from the roll of members, after two years' absence, at the discretion of the church.

ART. III—OFFICERS.

Section 1.—The officers of this church shall be a Pastor, two or more Deacons; three or more Trustees; a Clerk, and a Treasurer, who shall be members of this church.

Sec. 2.—All the officers shall be elected by ballot.

Sec. 3.—The Trustees, Clerk and Treasurer shall hold office for three years. The Deacons shall hold office for three years, or until their successors are elected. Vacancies may be filled at any regular meeting.

Sec. 4.—There shall be a Prudential Committee, consisting of the Pastor, Deacons and two ladies, who shall examine candidates for membership, receive and inquire into any complaints against members of the church, and to carry out actions of the church otherwise unprovided for. The Prudential Committee shall also be the committee on pulpit supply.

Sec. 5.—The duties of the different officers shall be as follows:

(a) The Pastor shall have control of the pulpit and the general exercises of public worship; shall preach the Word, and have the spiritual oversight of the congregation; shall administer the sacraments; shall execute the discipline ordered by the church; and shall, ordinarily, act as moderator in the meetings of the church. He shall be elected by vote of the church at any meeting, due notice having been given on the previous Sabbath. The official relation of the Pastor to be dissolved only by vote of the church, and at least one month after the Pastor, or church, has given notice of a desire for such dissolution.

(b) The Deacons shall aid the Pastor in the administration of the ordinances of the church, making all necessary provision for the same; shall attend to the discipline of the church, and assist the Pastor generally in the spiritual care of the congregation; and shall, in the absence of the Pastor, or of any stated supply, provide a temporary supply of the pulpit, and conduct the church meetings. They shall make an annual report, embodying therein suggestions touching the spiritual condition and wants of the church.

(c) The Clerk shall keep a faithful record of the proceedings and acts of the church, which shall be submitted for approval at the regular meetings, and shall enter the same in a book for future reference; he shall keep a register of all the members of the church, with the date and manner of their reception, of their removal, of their baptism, and other similar particulars; he shall keep a list of all the children baptized, with the names of both parents; he shall keep on file all church correspondence, all written official reports, and other valuable papers; he shall hand a written notice of the Annual Meeting to the Pastor to be read from the pulpit on the last two Sundays preceding said meeting, and he shall present a written annual report to the church, with a full statistical report for the year.

(d) The Treasurer shall receive all moneys and contributions belonging to the church; he shall disburse the charitable contributions under the direction of the Deacons, and shall forward the benevolent contributions to their respective destinations; and the funds for the immediate use of the church he shall expend on the order of the Trustees. He shall make an annual report to the church, of all the receipts and disbursements, with proper vouchers therefor.

(e) The Trustees shall see that the church is legally incorporated according to the laws of the state; they shall be responsible for the property of the church; shall superintend the raising of the minister's salary; and shall provide for all the incidental expenses of the church, subject always to its directing vote; but they shall have no power to buy, sell, mortgage, lease or transfer property without specific authority given by vote of the church. They shall make a full report of their doings at the Annual Meeting of the church, and also give such suggestions touching the affairs of the church for the ensuing year as they deem advisable.

ART. IV—DISCIPLINE.

The rule of discipline of this church shall be the law of Christ, recorded in Matt. xviii. 15-17.

ART. V—ORDINANCES.

Section 1.—The Lord's Supper shall be regularly celebrated at such times as the church shall appoint.

Sec. 2.—Baptism shall be administered at such times as the Pastor and the Deacons shall designate.

ART. VI—MEETINGS.

Section 1.—The Annual Business Meeting of this church, to hear reports, elect officers, and transact any business that may properly come before the meeting, shall be held on the Tuesday after the first Monday in January.

Sec. 2.—Regular Church Meetings shall be held on the Saturday preceding the first Sunday of each month.

Sec. 3.—Services preparatory to the administration of the Lord's Supper shall be held on the Saturday before the first Sunday in January, and every two months thereafter, at the time of holding the regular Church Meeting, and at these meetings business shall be dispensed with as far as possible.

Sec. 4.—Special Meetings may be called by the Pastor and Deacons, or by request of five members, due notice having been given on the previous Sabbath.

ART. VII—RULES AND AMENDMENTS.

Section 1.—The church shall enact such Rules as are necessary to carry out the requirements of this Constitution.

Sec. 2.—This Constitution may be altered or amended at any annual meeting, or at any meeting called for that purpose by a vote of two-thirds of the members present, provided a written notice of the same has been given at least four weeks previous, and read from the pulpit on the Sabbath preceding such meeting, and provided, further, that the proposed change does not infringe upon the doctrines or organic principles of this church.

RULES.

I. Five members shall constitute a quorum.

II. The Constitution, Rules, Articles of Faith, and Covenant shall be read by the Pastor at the preparatory services for January and July of each year.

III. The names of resident members of this church who absent themselves from the regular services and ordinances of the church for one year or more, except in case of sickness or physical inability to attend the same, may be dropped from the church roll by vote of the church.

IV. At each preparatory service the roll of members present shall be called by the Clerk, and it is urged that each person respond by prayer, verse of scripture, or quotation, and if impossible to be present it is urged that a message be sent.

V. Any of these Rules may be suspended for the time being by a two-thirds vote of the members present at any regular meeting of the church. They may be altered by a like vote provided a written notice has been given at least one week previous.
